Friday BBQ; we would like to say a big thank you to everyone who came along. The BBQ provided a perfect opportunity for everyone to unwind and connect after a busy week.

Special thanks go to Eru for leading the karakia

Jason, is beaming with pride after mastering a key life skill—operating the washing machine. His achievement marks a significant steps in his journey toward independence, and he's eager for the many learning experiences that lie ahead.

With heartfelt gratitude, Jason extends his thanks to those who have supported and guided him through this process. Their encouragement and patience have been instrumental in helping him gain confidence in managing everyday tasks.

Here's to Jason's ongoing journey and the many more milestones to come.

As another firewood season wraps up, the Greenways crew would like that thank Mainfreight for playing a vital role in making transporting our firewood to Whangarei Mitre10, without their support we wouldn't have been able to supply to the Whangarei market. Thank you Mainfreight
