

Newsletter

16 May 2025

Kōrero MAI
KŌRERO ATU
MAURI TŪ, MAURI ORA
SPEAK UP, STAND TOGETHER, STOP BULLYING

Warren lit up the room as he joined Roxanne's class with the biggest smile and even bigger energy! He dived right into the moves like a total star and absolutely nailed them—go Woz! With his charm, cuteness, and unstoppable spirit, Warren had everyone grinning from ear to ear. What a legend!

Kia tūpato, Ralph Hotere—kei te eke panuku a Eru! Eru has been painting up a storm in our kaupapa rā (day programme), creating toi ataahua (beautiful art) that reflects his auahatanga (creativity) and passion. With a special love for toi Māori, Eru brings aroha, mana, and ngākau nui (enthusiasm) to every piece he creates. Each new artwork is a taonga, showing just how truly tohungatanga (skilled and talented) he is.

Ka mau te wehi, Eru—me mahi nui tonu! We all can't wait to see what stunning mahi toi you'll share with us next.

Helen was all dolled up and ready to hit the town this Saturday, excited to visit all her favourite local spots. She absolutely loves heading downtown, catching up with familiar faces, and never misses a chance to make new friends along the way.

Recently, Helen has taken on a brand-new role—she's now one of the cleaning team for Sunflower Cottage, and she's doing a fantastic job! With her positive energy, she's making the place sparkle and shine, just like she does wherever she goes.

Whats on..

26th May - Ray Elvis's Birthday
6th June - Party Zone - A Mid Winter Christmas

Last Wednesday of every month,
6pm Ukulele welcome to all at the Old Post Office

