2nd May 2025

For those who haven't heard the news, we've officially purchased a new property! Wednesday marked takeover day, and to celebrate, our people who are moving in gathered for a night of pizza and good vibes.

Excitement is in the air as everyone gets ready to move in and begin this exciting new chapter. Stay tuned big things are coming!

Tiffany snuck away for the weekend to spend some quality time with her niece Maisie, showering her with hugs and kisses before heading back home

Michelle treated two of her boys to a fun-filled day of shopping in Auckland, topped off with a well-earned McDonald's feast before heading home. Next time, don't forget to bring us back a soft serve!

Happy Birthday David, we hope you had the best day.
