Matariki is the Māori New Year, a time of celebration, reflection, and renewal that coincides with the rising of the Matariki star cluster (also known as the Pleiades) in the winter sky. It's a period for remembering those who have passed, celebrating the present, and planning for the future.

MĀ TE WHETŪRANGI
O MATARIKI, E TIAKI
MAI, E MANAAKI MAI
I A KOE, I A KOUTOU
RĀNEI, MŌ TE TAU E
TAKA MAI ANA.

May the gentle light of Matariki guide and inspire you all this year.

Our sweet adopted cat, Missymoo, has well and truly made herself at home up at Waihue. She's absolutely thriving—soaking up cuddles, basking in the spotlight, and charming everyone she meets. Missymoo has quickly become the queen of the place, and our Waihue whānau simply can't get enough of her. She's not just a pet—she's part of the family.

Waihue house hit the road over the weekend and made a surprise stop at Evon's to visit the fluffiest locals around — the alpacas! The whole crew fell in love instantly, and we're pretty sure Pete tried to smuggle one into the van (nice try, Pete!). Safe to say, they're already counting down the days until their next visit!
