

4th April 2025 NEWSLETTER

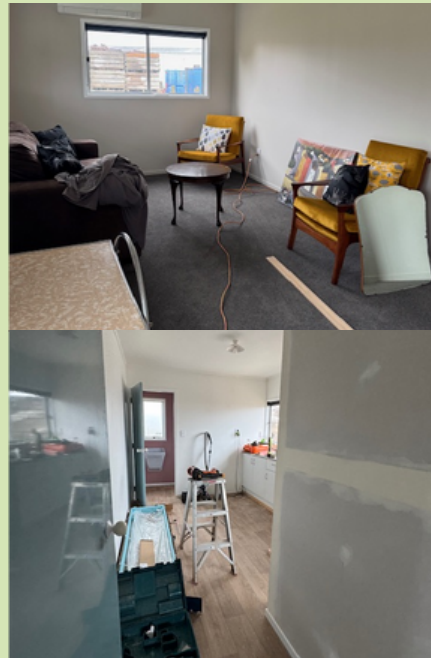

On Sunday, Ray competed in a swimming competition in Auckland, gliding through the water like a true champion! He gave it his all and came away with ribbons for 6th and 8th place. Amazing effort, Ray – we are so proud of you!

The day program is making the most of the Dargaville pools while they're open! Marie and Jo have been taking some of the crew for a splash, and on Monday, Tiffany, Nathanael, and Warren hit the water, swimming a few laps and loving every moment

The day programme managed to slip away with Matua Pere for a lovely picnic up at the lighthouse. They soaked up the sunshine and enjoyed each other's company. Here's hoping for more sunny days so they can do it all over again

We're transforming our Sunflower Cottage into a charming BnB! A lot of exciting changes are happening, and it's really coming together beautifully. Stay tuned—we'll let you know as soon as it's ready for bookings

Whats On

4th April – BBQ at the depot
12th April – Newell's Birthday
26th April – David's Birthday
Wednesday of every month,
6pm Ukulele welcome to all at the Old Post Office

Aroha ki te tangata,
Anakoa ko wai te tangata
Love people, in spite of who they are