Look at these little beauties – straight from the Waihue garden! Those strawberries are looking juicy enough to pinch right off the vine. They've been soaking up the sunshine and getting plenty of love, and it shows! If this is just the beginning, we can't wait to see what other goodies start popping up next. Nothing beats the taste of homegrown!

Up, up and away! Lloyd flew into the weekend to celebrate his friend's 21st in true superhero style. From capes and masks to heaps of delicious food, there was no shortage of fun. The afternoon was packed with laughter, great mates, and all the energy you'd expect from a room full of heroes. Definitely one for the memory books

Our elves at the depot have been hard at work getting into the Christmas spirit – busy pumping out Christmas trees and having a grand old time while they're at it! Santa Christo was right there to capture the magic in action. The holiday cheer is well and truly in full swing
