

Newsletter

31 October 2025

On Sunday, Tiffany and Jeremy decided to unwind with a relaxing pedicure session. Tiffany went full glam with a burst of colour on her toes, while Jeremy opted for the clean, natural finish. Both left feeling relaxed, refreshed, and ready to step into the week with their best foot forward!

We had a very excited young man last week! Lloyd was off to the Lynx Competition in Whangārei, feeling a mix of nerves and excitement. He was looking sharp with a fresh new haircut, smart clothes, and a big, confident smile. All the best, Lloyd go show them what you've got

Craig Nabbed a couple of Ray's creations and by the look of that smile he is super stoked

Nathanael made the most of his Labour Weekend, keeping busy and lending a hand out on the farm.

He spent his days collecting pinecones, moving mulch, and feeding the new lambs — what a little farm champ! To top it all off, Nathanael was treated to a special sight when a parade of vintage cars gathered along the road frontage. It was the perfect finishing touch to an already wonderful Labour Day!

WHATS ON:

No BBQ Friday 7th Nov

Ten Pin Bowling 9th Nov

Night Market at Greenways

Deport 4 - 7pm 28th Nov

NĀ TŌ ROUROU
NĀ TAKU ROUROU
KA ORA AI TE IWI

*With your food basket
and my food basket
the people will thrive.*